

READ ACROSS AMERICA

What better way to celebrate Dr. Seuss's Birthday than reading to a child? On the morning of Thursday, March 03, 2011, Fruitvale Elementary School invites you to our annual "Read Across America Day."

Whether you are at a desk, change the tires on a bus, Dr. Lowder himself or some guy named Gus. If you are a Kiwanis member, a fire fighter or putting the bad guys away, we really could use your help on this day! If you are a Dentist, a Secretary or U.S. Marine, the laughs we'll share are sure to make you scream! We know you're busy and have plenty on your plate, but if you could come and read a book to a child that would really be great! "You're never too old, too wacky or too wild to pick up a book and read to a child."

Date: Thursday, March 03, 2011

Time: 9:00 - 11:00

Location: Fruitvale Elementary School Classrooms

Please RSVP to Andy Silva or Jennifer Scott at 951-765-1680 or asilva@hemetusd.k12.ca.us jscott@hemetusd.k12.ca.us

We would greatly appreciate any amount of time you can share with our students! You are welcome to bring a book of your own choice or one can be provided for you!
