Hemet Unified School District

Press Release

Trustee Bill Sanborn, on behalf of the Hemet Unified School District Governing Board, recognized Debbi Kraemer, Certificated Personnel Technician in the Human Resources Department.

Hemet, January 17, 2012: Bill Sanborn recognized Debbi Kraemer for her outstanding efforts on behalf of students, staff and the district.

Debbi began her career in education in 1994 when she was hired as office manager of Whittier Elementary School. In 2000 she became a certificated personnel technician, the position she holds today.

Debbi is known as a tactful, effective communicator who provides a high level of customer service with a positive and professional demeanor. She is dedicated, enthusiastic and shows a strong commitment to “the kids,” the community, staff and the District.

Each year she assists her husband, Matt Kraemer, Principal of Idyllwild School, with the Super Kids Bowl as well as with various fundraisers at Idyllwild School. She is active in her church and volunteers to read to students at Whittier Elementary School for Dr. Seuss Day.

For outstanding performance, professionalism and loyalty to the Hemet Unified School District, Trustee Bill Sanborn presented Debbi Kraemer with the Governing Board Recognition of Excellence award and a $500 certificate to be used toward the district program of her choice.
